NEW WESTMINSTER, SATURDAY, OCT. 24, 1863.
THE DOUGLAS-LILLOOET ELECTION.

We published in Wednesday's impression, an account of the election at Douglas of a member to represent that District in the Legislative Council, from which it will be seen that the good example set by the electors of this District has not been without its effect, as the basis with respect to franchise, &c., has been accepted and carried out. This proceeding reflects great credit upon the people of Douglas, and affords further evidence of the fact that the population of this Colony is of that conservative, British type, which constitutes the best guarantee that representative institutions would be safe in their hands. Men who can take hold of such a loose and crude thing as the circular from the Colonial Secretary and work it out as they have done, are indeed capable of managing their own affairs in a far more extended sense than they will have the privilege of doing under the wretched, empty mockery now granted to British Columbia. It is something unique in the history of British Colonization to find the people rejecting the principle of "universal suffrage" when offered to them by the Government, and voluntarily imposing upon themselves a very respectable property qualification for both members and electors. May we not reasonably hope that this pleasing and somewhat remarkable indication of love for and attachment to British usages and good old landmarks may exert a salutary influence upon the mind of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and tend to convince him that he has misjudged the genius of the people, and withheld from them institutions which would not only be safe in their hands but would conduce to the advancement and prosperity of the country.

In so far as respects the choice of the people of Douglas we may say they have by no means acted unwisely. Mr. Holbrook is a gentleman who possesses many qualities which ought to entitle him to the confidence of the people. He is one of the first settlers, and during the five years spent in this place he has done a great deal politically, commercially and socially for the good of the Colony. He has generally been found on the right side and in the front ranks in struggling for the liberties and rights of British subjects; and if, in some instances, he has evinced too much vacillation it is probably more his failing than his fault. When the choice was between him and the member elect for this District we unhesitatingly gave the preference to the latter, because we honestly believed he would represent more truly and unwaveringly the views and wishes of this constituency. And although we felt it to be our duty to oppose Mr. Holbrook in this District, yet we are convinced he will make a good member and represent the interests of the people who have honored him with their confidence in a manner alike creditable to himself and satisfactory to them. His act in proposing the health of Mr. Homer at the Douglas dinner was a graceful one under the circumstances. There is one noticeable circumstance in the elections here and at Douglas, to which we would direct the attention of Victoria unionists. In all the addresses which have been issued, and in all the speeches which have been made by the different candidates, expression has been given to a decided opposition to a union with Vancouver Island.

IRISH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The annual meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly in Ireland has just been held. All the ministers and elders of that church are members. But only about 500 usually attend the meeting. Rev. Dr. Cooke, the retiring Moderator, preached the opening sermon. He also filled the chair twenty two years ago, and he is the only man who has twice been awarded the honor. The Assembly has a foreign mission located in North-western India, and the Bible has there been translated into the native language. The report showed 149 students in preparation for the ministry of the Irish Presbyterian church.

CENSUS OF IRELAND.—The census of Ireland for 1861, which has just been published in the form of a voluminous blue book of 1196 pages, gives the total number of inhabitants as being 5,798,987, in addition to 26,080 officers and soldiers, 1174 men belonging to the navy, and 2282 in connection with the merchant service. The numbers are thus apportioned to the provinces:—Leinster, 1,457,635; Munster, 1,513,568; Ulster, 2,914,536; and Connaught, 913,135. Out of these figures 2,105,958 can read and write, 1,022,787 read only, and 2,667,090 are incapable of doing either.—English Paper.

NEW WESTMINSTER, SATURDAY, OCT. 24, 1863.
A HOUSE DIVIDED AGAINST ITSELF.

We cannot say we are particularly gratified—certainly not surprised—at the result of the recent discussion in the Island Assembly upon the subject of the union of these Colonies. We have always believed that even in Victoria there were many opposed to the union, yet we were hardly prepared for such a strong opposition and such a diversity of opinion. The discussion, although lengthy and warm, has proved most barren of practical result and has come to an ignominious end, leaving the question just where it was before, with this point gained, however, that all the world knows, what only a few knew before, that there is a selfish and unprincipled clique who, regardless of the rights of this Colony and the permanent welfare of their own, would desire to force an unnatural and unending union upon a basis of sand, merely and solely for present pecuniary gain. Yes, it has done more. It has demonstrated the fact that a majority of the people—or at least the people's representatives—of Victoria not only question the policy of a union, but entertain too high a sense of right to seek a connection which would entail injustice and injury upon this Colony; and this, perhaps, the most pleasing feature of the whole discussion. It is a very noticeable fact that during the controversy not a single attempt was made to show that this Colony would be benefitted by such an arrangement as has been proposed, while the labored efforts put forth to prove the advantages to accrue therefrom to the Island have not been such as carried conviction with them. It must have been very mortifying to the ex-Editor of the Colonist to find that after five years' writing and a three days' speech his long cherished scheme met with so little favor. We never felt much anxiety upon the subject, believing, as we do, that a union could not be consummated without the concurrence of the people of this Colony. Now, however, that the people of Vancouver Island are divided amongst themselves, we enjoy a double security against being forced into union with a small and impoverished Colony, where the advantages, if any, must be all on one side.

H. M. SHIP "CAMELEON." Commander Hardinge, steamed into this port on Thursday morning and came to anchor opposite the city. This ship draws 15 feet of water, and came over the sands at half-flood without experiencing the slightest difficulty. She comes to take the officers and that part of the Royal Engineer detachment about to leave for England down to Esquimalt, for which purpose she will remain till the 10th proximo. We believe it is the intention of Capt. Hardinge while in port to fire a gun at 8 P. M., every Tuesday and Friday.

THE GOLD STREAM MINES.—These diggings, so called, situated on Vancouver Island, about 15 miles from Victoria in a westerly direction, have recently afforded material for sensation articles in the local newspapers and resulted in a considerable rush. The general impression, however, is that although "the color" can be obtained almost everywhere, gold has not yet been, and probably will never be, found in paying quantities upon the Island. The present excitement will doubtless lead to a more thorough prospecting, which of itself will be a good. The Victoria papers which came to hand last evening contain accounts of rich prospects. We hope it may be so, but feel disposed to receive these statements with very great caution.

THE "EVENING EXPRESS" ON OUR ELECTION.—On our fourth page will be found an excellent leader upon the subject of the election of a member to represent this District in the Legislative Council, copied from the Evening Express. The writer of the article appreciates the noble stand taken upon that occasion, and pays the people a merited compliment.

THE NEW GOVERNOR.—A gentleman in this city received a letter by last English mail in which it is stated that Capt. Kennedy has been appointed Governor of this Colony, and was to sail from England during the present month with his family.

THE OVERLAND ROAD.—From a letter received from the Hon. M. Cameron by last mail we regret to learn that Mr. Watkin, who was commissioned to act for the British Financial Association in respect to the promotion of overland communication, quarrelled with the Canadian Government upon a Grand Trunk matter, and thereby placed himself in such a position that no further communication would be held with him, in consequence of which that gentleman had returned to England. We fear the result of this untoward circumstance will be to delay that important scheme.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS for week ending, Saturday 17th. 1863: Duties, £598 2 1; harbor dues, £9 10; headmoney, £9; tonnage dues, £53 11. Total, £670 3 1. Number of passengers during same period, 45.

THIS NEW BUILDING, having three stories fronting Columbia Street, with spacious Bed-rooms Dining-room, 20x30; Bar-room, 20x30; and Ladies' Sitting-room, 16x16; is most advantageously situated for a First Class Hotel, being only 90 yards from the wharf at Lytton Square, and having a commanding view of 6 miles on the river. There is also a constant supply of water flowing into the house for ordinary purposes.
The success of this Hotel is well known, and from the Books may be seen that it has cleared itself in the short space of 18 months. Satisfactory reasons can be given for the present Proprietor's retiring from the business. Apply on the premises, or to W. H. Burt, Victoria, V. I. oc7-1c

THE WAR.

The steamer Enterprise arrived yesterday with war news to the 17th inst., but, as usual, far more voluminous than important. Instead, therefore, of leading our readers through columns of contradictory details, we submit the following succinct resume from the Evening Express:

"The War news by the steamer Sierra Nevada is of a very meagre description. Skirmishing seems to be the order of the day at almost every point where the armies of the North and South confront each other. If the rumors be true a battle was imminent between Lee and Meade, the former making demonstrations which prove that he is prepared to encounter the forces of the Northern General, for it may be a decisive blow. A corps of the Confederate army, under Hill, had pushed off towards Leesburg and it was supposed to be the advanced guard of a column which contemplated crossing the Potomac, and making an attack on Washington from the northern approach, or if that cannot be successfully done, to make a raid through Maryland into Pennsylvania. It is supposed that Lee has been heavily reinforced from various quarters, and a good deal of uneasiness evidently exists in Washington as to the result of the coming contest. From Chattanooga there is not much news of an exciting character—Bragg's army is now said to amount to 175,000 men, with a reserve under General Johnson of 55,000. Some difficulties have arisen among a portion of the troops under General Polk, on account of not being allowed to return home after their period of service had expired. Bragg it is said had fired upon the discontented, killing and wounding a good many, but we fancy the troubles have been exaggerated by the northern papers and that it was not so serious as represented. The communications between Burnside and Rosecrans had been intercepted by the Confederates. About 25 miles from Port Hudson a battle took place between the Union troops and Confederates, the result was a victory for the latter; the number of killed is not given, but they took 1500 northern troops prisoners. At Charleston no material alteration had taken place in the state of affairs. The State elections for Governor had taken place in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Iowa, and said to be in favor of Republicans, but from the way elections are carried in the states now, these results are not true indications of the real strength of parties. Gold was quoted in New York, on the 16th inst., at 152½."

European Summary.

European dates are to the 4th inst.—The privateers Alabama, Concord and Georgia had visited ports near the Cape of Good Hope, and captured and burned several vessels. The steamer Vanderbilt left St. Helena on the 20th of August in pursuit. The Alabama is reported to have captured 48 prizes. Mason's letter to Earl Russell, on his withdrawal, is published. He quotes Davis's instructions, saying that he believes the British Government is determined to decline friendly overtures and will not receive a Minister, and it is therefore no longer consistent with the dignity of the Confederate Government for Mason to remain. The Polish question remains unchanged. It is reported that Baron Gros informed Earl Russell that it was the opinion of the French Government, relative to the Polish negotiations, that it is preferable to close the useless discussion. New York, October 7.—The following is additional by the Persia. The privateer Georgia put into Sim's Bay on the 16th August for coal. She had captured and bonded the ship Prince of Wales, from Valparaiso to Antwerp. This was said to be her fifteenth prize. The privateer Concord, now called the Tuscaloosa, put into Sim's Bay August 8th. She had captured the ship Santee, from Acapulco (Acapulco, Bay of Mexico). The United States Consul protested against the capture of the Sea Bird, which had also been captured by that vessel, on the ground that she had been captured in British waters; and also demanded the delivery of the Tuscaloosa, on the ground that being a prize, and not yet condemned, she violated the neutrality proclamation by entering a British port. The Government decided adversely to the Consul in both cases, whereupon the Consul entered a protest. Earl Russell in a speech relative to the ironclads in the Mercury, is interpreted as saying that the vessels will be detained, even if the existing law is in their favor, so that Parliament may be called upon to pass a measure for the purpose. Earl Russell has made an important speech on foreign affairs, alluding to the American question and justifying the recognition of the Confederates as belligerents. He went over the whole matter of blockades, privateers, and Confederate rams, and in doing so gave expression to the most noble and statesmanlike views, showing how Great Britain had sacrificed self-interest to honor and integrity. The Times says California is desirous to secede and join the Mexican Empire.

An IMPRESSIVE SIGHT.—Happening to drop into the assay office yesterday our curiosity was excited by observing something upon a table covered over with a white sheet, resembling very much the "laid out" remains of some poor mortal. Observing our curious glance, one of the gentlemen of the establishment lifted the cloth, and what do you think met our excited gaze? One hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of gold in bars!! The greater portion of this belongs to a lucky Canadian. QUITE GAY.—Our harbor presented quite a gay appearance yesterday with two of H. M. ships lying opposite the city. The surveying ship Beaver went down to the mouth during the day, with the harbor-master on board, for the purpose of placing some buoys in position. QUICK TRIP.—The steamer Enterprise made her last round trip to New Westminster in the quickest time on record in Fraser River. Steamboat annuals. She left here at 2:07 a. m., arrived at New Westminster at 10:6 a. m., discharged 104 tons of freight, left at 1:26 p. m., and reached Victoria at 7:50 p. m., making the whole voyage, stoppages included, in 17 hours and 45 minutes. Verily the Enterprise is a smart little craft, and well handled by her popular commander.

The Farmer's Friend.

COST TO PENNSYLVANIA.—The N. Y. Herald says it is estimated that the loss now sustained, and that which will be necessarily sustained hereafter, even under the most favorable circumstances, by the people of Pennsylvania, in consequence of the rebel invasion, will amount to fifty millions of dollars.

SUDDENLY OLD.—A Boston hatter advertises the "Bogota Hat, for middle-aged and elderly gentlemen." There is no end to the astuteness of these Yankees. Well that hatter knew how the conscription would increase and multiply the number of "middle-aged and elderly gentlemen" throughout the land, and that the "Bogota" or "Over-Forty-five" hat, has been well patronized accordingly.—N. Y. paper.

THE DRAMA.—We sincerely regret having been prevented attending the entertainment given by the Royal Engineers' Club at their Theatre on Tuesday evening, especially as we understand it is designed to be the closing performance. We learn that the audience was very large, and indicated the utmost satisfaction. The piece played upon this occasion was, "The Farmer's Story, or the Broken Heart," followed by two farces, entitled "A Pleasant Neighbour," and "Two Heads are better than One."

We only very imperfectly give utterance to public sentiment when we say that this community generally feel deeply indebted to the R. E. Club for the numerous entertainments given during their stay in this place. At very great expense in time and money, to themselves they have spared no pains to afford rational amusement; and so general have been their invitations to the citizens that their beautiful little Theatre might almost be said to have been thrown open to the public. The proficiency, too, to which these amateurs have attained is really something wonderful. We have witnessed many of their performances with far greater satisfaction than those of professional players. We shall miss them sadly during the approaching winter nights.

MORE MINERS AND MORE TREASURE.—The str. Reliance arrived from Yale last evening with 125 passengers, having in their possession, as nearly as we could ascertain, $75,000 in treasure. Mr. Barnard came down by her, but without an express, as he has not been to Cariboo this trip. The water is falling rapidly at Yale.

THE REV. J. SHEEPSHANKS, Rector of Holy Trinity Church, arrived from Cariboo last evening. The reverend gentleman looks nothing the worse for his five months' sojourn in the diggings, and what is of far more importance, we learn from many sources that he has done good and faithful work amongst the miners. He was ever to be found with the sick and destitute, administering spiritual consolation as well as temporal relief, instead of hanging round rich claim owners and Government officials.

BRAVO, "FIRE KING."—Out of compliment to Mr. Kelly, Foreman of the Victoria "Tigers," who came up by the Enterprise yesterday, the "Hyacks" took out the Fire King and tested its capacity. It threw a strong stream quite over the top of a tree on the corner of the Pioneer wharf, 165 feet high, and, horizontally, attained a distance of 185 feet. This, we believe, excellent work for an engine of the class. Mr. Kelly goes home by the Enterprise to-day, doubtless pleased with the attention shown him by his brother firemen of New Westminster.

ESCAPE OF THE THREE INDIANS.—It is currently reported that Mr. Gumpertz, constable at Williams Lake, took out four Indian prisoners, three of whom were under sentence of death, upon a hunting excursion, when three of them effected their escape. If this be true it is to be hoped the matter will not be passed over lightly.

THE BANK OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.—At a general meeting of shareholders held at the London Tavern on the 9th September, the accounts of that institution up to the 30th of June showed a profit, after deducting all charges, of £101 2. This is a very gratifying state of things.

LARGE ASSAY.—Upwards of $150,000 has been assayed in the Government office here during the last two or three days, the major portion of which was the property of Mr. J. A. Cameron.

NOTES!—We would call attention to Mr. Thistleton's advertisement. Doubtless many would desire to have skins of various sorts cured and dressed, and we believe we are correct in stating that Mr. Thistleton understands the business in all its branches.

SMOKED SALMON.—We have to acknowledge the receipt of a sample of very fine smoked salmon from Mr. Trafield of this city, and would recommend those who are fond of the article to give him a call.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the British Columbian.

SIR,—Knowing the interest you have always manifested in the prosperity of agriculture, I beg to suggest the propriety of organizing an agricultural association in this city. We have now a very respectable settlement in the District of New Westminster, and I am assured very many of the farmers would be only too glad to avail themselves of the many advantages of such an association. In a new and remote Colony like British Columbia the isolated farmer labors under very great disadvantages in respect to procuring seeds, stock, implements, &c., and one object of such an organization would be to facilitate the supply. They have a tendency also to stimulate to excellence in that most important branch of industry, and it is now, in the beginning, when the farmer is struggling for a footing, that he most needs encouragement. I trust, therefore, you will see it to be your duty to advocate the organization of such an association.

THE FARMER'S FRIEND.

[We entirely agree with the sentiments contained in the above, and would strongly recommend an early movement in the matter. If we had a Society formed here there is little doubt that it would receive pecuniary support from the new Government.—Ed.]

THE SHELING OF CHATTANOOGA.—SCENE IN CHURCH.—The Chattanooga Rebel of 23d August says:

One of the most impressive scenes we have ever witnessed occurred in the Presbyterian church on yesterday. The services were held by the Rev. Dr. Palmer of New Orleans, and the pews and aisles were crowded with officers and soldiers, private citizens, ladies and children. A prayer had been said and one of the hymns sung. The organist was absent, "and I will be thankful," continued the minister, "if some one in the congregation will raise the tune." The tune was raised; the whole congregation joined in singing, as in days gone by; the sacred notes in humble melody from the house of God, swelling their holy tribute to His glory, and dying away at last like the echoes of departed days. The second, or what is known as the long prayer, was begun, when out upon the calm, still air, there came an alien sound—the sullen voice of a hostile gun—ringing from the north bank of the river and echoing back and back among the far-off glens of Lookout peak. It was sudden—it took every one by surprise; for few, if any, expected the approach of an enemy. The day was one of fasting and prayer; the public mind was upon its worship. Its serenity had not been crossed by a shadow, and it was not until another and another of these unchristian accents trembled in the air, and hid themselves away to the hills, that it was generally realized, that the enemy were shelling the town. Without a word of warning, in the midst of church service, while several thousands of men and women thronged the many places of public worship, the basest of human foemen had begun an attack upon a city crowded with hospitals and refugees from the bloody pathway of their march, and in no wise essential to a direct assault.

There was a little bustle and disturbance in the galleries; the noise in the streets grew more distinct and louder; near the doors several persons who had other duties, military or domestic, to attend to, hastily withdrew; the mass of the congregation, however, remained in their places; and the man of God continued his prayer. It was impressive in the extreme. There he stood, this exile preacher from the far South, with eyes and hands raised to heaven; not a muscle or expression changed; not a note altered; not a sign of confusion, excitement or alarm; naught but the calm, Christian face uplifted, and full of the unconsciousness to all save its devotions, which beam from the soul of true piety. Not only the occasion, but the prayer was solemnly, eloquently impressive. The reverend doctor prayed, and his heart was in his prayer; it was the long prayer, and he did not shorten it; he prayed to the end, and the cannon did not drown him from those who listened, as they could not drown him from the ear of God. He closed, and then, without panic or consternation, although excited and confused, the dense crowd separated whilst shells were falling on the right and left.

A MEXICAN AMAZON.—Among the Mexican prisoners brought to France by the transport Rhone is a young Indian woman, only 23 years of age, who was Lieutenant-Colonel of the regiment of Zacatecas, and who, in the course of seven years, rose step by step from the ranks by her courage and talents. She followed her husband to the army, and was soon promoted to the rank of Second Lieutenant for her distinguished bravery. The death of her husband, killed in action, afforded her an opportunity of avenging him and rising another step. The French defeat at Guadalupe, on the 25th of May, 1862, obtained for her the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, second in command of a regiment, in which position she again greatly distinguished herself during the siege of Puebla. This singular woman handles the sword like a first-rate fencing-master, and she made herself not only respected but feared by her soldiers, who looked upon her as a supernatural being. After Ortega surrendered at discretion at Puebla she was brought to Vera Cruz, and was lodged on board the Rhone, until that vessel sailed for France. Her order of embarkation mentions her rank and gives her a right to sit at the field-officers' table. She is said to be of agreeable personal appearance, although, as might be expected, rather more masculine in her ways than altogether becomes her sex.

PERPETUAL MOTION.—A Vermont Yankee claims to have invented a self-propelling wheel, or perpetual motion. A correspondent of the Boston Journal thus describes it:—"It is a simple wheel, runs on gudgeons, and is independent of any outside spring, weight, or power, as a propeller. On the same axle on which the metal wheel is fixed is a band wheel, on which a band runs over a small pulley that drives a small circular saw. Set it on a table and remove the brake, and it will start itself and run with great velocity, driving the saw. It is the simplest thing in the world, but I cannot intelligibly describe it; but it is at once understood by the beholder. It will not, nay, cannot stop without a brake, as it is so fixed by means of balls and arms that the descending side of the wheel is perpetually further from the centre of motion than the opposition ascending."

RED RIVER FUR TRADE.—The St. Paul Pioneer of July 3rd, says:—"The Red River fur trade is quite large this year, much more so than any previous year. It is estimated that the amount brought into this city by carts, in the past ten days, will exceed $100,000 worth—one trader alone, Mr. A. Paul, having over $50,000 worth. Our merchants have been busy filling the orders of the Red River traders, whose purchases, it is believed, will be at least $30,000. Nearly every pound of crushed sugar and cheap tobacco in the city has been bought by them, and many of the carts have started for Red River fully loaded."

A SON OF ANAK IN GLASGOW.—A man of gigantic stature is exhibiting himself in Glasgow. His name is Price, and born in that portion of the Vosges Mountains which belongs to France. He calls himself the French Giant of the Mountains. He is twenty-three years of age, eight feet in height, thirty stones weight, and measures four feet three inches round the chest. While in London, the tallest of the life guards could easily walk under his outstretched arm. The circumference of his head is two feet three inches.—Scottish Paper.

RECALL OF DR. LIVINGSTONE.—Orders have been received for the recall of the Livingstone expedition. The home authorities—while highly appreciating the enterprise and zeal of Dr. Livingstone and all his officers, and fully appreciating the interest of the geographical discoveries—do not think that these are practically of sufficient importance to justify the continuance of the heavy outlay required for them. They have accordingly ordered that the expedition shall return home as soon as possible, that the pioneer steamer shall be given up to the admiral of the station, and that all the accounts shall be closed by the end of the year.—English Paper.

A MISSION SHIP.—The mission vessel for the New Hebrides Mission, building at New Glasgow Nova Scotia, is we learn, rapidly approaching completion. She is to be launched in a few days. About £1000, N. S. currency, have been collected by children in these Provinces towards defraying expense of building her, &c. Her maintenance will cost about £600 a year.—P. E. Protestant.

REMARKABLE CONVERSIONS FROM ROMANISM.—Mr. Fedilintzy, formerly Prince-Bishop of Breslau, who has for some time past resided at Berlin, has embraced the Protestant faith. We also learn that fourteen families, of the Roman Catholic communion of Vardowitz, in the district of Liechnau, in Austria, have waited upon their priest, with a declaration, irregularly drawn up and signed, of their conscientious and determined resolve to quit the Romish Church, and enter the Protestant communion.—Evangelical Christendom.

PRINCE AND DOCTOR.—The Prince of Wales and his brother-in-law, Prince Louis of Hesse, have been dubbed Doctors of Common Law, at Oxford, where there have been splendid festivities in honor of the occasion. Dr. Albert Edward is continually before the public; and carries himself well.

"Buy one of these superior razor-strops, sir, and I will tell you a secret worth double the cost, for only sixpence."

"I'll take one," said a bystander.

The peddler handed him a strop and a box of paste, and went on selling.

"Look here!" interrupted the purchaser, "you promised to tell me something worth double the price."

"Ah, so I did," said the peddler, "and it is this: If you had bought a box of the paste for a penny, and put it on your old strop, it would have made it just exactly as good as a new one."

Mrs. Partington says that nothing despises her so much as to see the people who profess to expect salvation, go to church, without their purses when a recollection is to be taken.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Abscesses, Erysipelas, Piles.—Unvarying success attends all who treat these diseases according to the simple printed directions wrapped round each pot and box. They are invaluable to the young and timid, whose bashfulness sometimes endangers life. A little attention, moderate perseverance, and trifling expense will enable the most diffident to conduct any case to a happy issue, without exposing secret infirmities to anyone. The Ointment arrests the spreading inflammation, restrains the excited vessels, cools the overheated skin, alleviates throbbing and smarting pains, and gives great ease. The same directions also clearly point out when and how Holloway's Pills are to be taken, and regulating powers may assist by adjusting and strengthening the constitution.

DIED.—At Victoria, V. I., on the 18th inst., Victoria Maria, only child of Mr. A. Sherwood Hall, late of Brockville, Canada West, aged one year and ten months.

"Thy life was short—unmixed with pain—Thou wast not suffered to remain, But innocent as a sweet dove, Thou hast a crown prepared above."

ALL CURES MADE EASY!!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts and Old Wounds.

No description of wound, sore, or ulcer can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst cases readily assume a healthy appearance whenever this medicament is applied; sound flesh springs up from the bottom of the wound, inflammation of the surrounding skin is arrested, and a complete and permanent cure quickly follows the use of the Ointment.

Piles, Fistulas and Internal Inflammation.

These distressing and weakening diseases may with certainty be cured by the sufferers themselves, if they will use Holloway's Ointment, and closely attend to the printed instructions. It should be well rubbed upon the neighbouring parts, when all obnoxious matter will be removed. A poultice of bread and water may sometimes be applied at bed time with advantage; and most scrupulous cleanliness must be observed. If those who read this paragraph will bring it under the notice of each of their acquaintances whom it may concern, they will render a service that will never be forgotten, as a cure is certain.

Rheumatism, Gout & Neuralgia.

Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subduing pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously they drive all inflammation and depravities from the system, subdue and remove all enlargement of the joints, and leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted. A cure may always be effected, even under the worst circumstances, if the use of these medicines be persevered in.

Eruptions, Scald Head, Ringworm & other Skin Diseases.

After fomentation with warm water, utmost relief and speediest cure can be readily obtained in all complaints affecting the skin and joints, by the simultaneous use of the Ointment and Pills. But it must be remembered that nearly all skin diseases indicate the depravity of the blood and derangement of the liver and stomach; consequently, in many cases, time is required to purify the blood, which will be effected by a judicious use of the Pills. The general health will be readily improved, although the eruption may be driven out more freely than before, and which should not be promoted; perseverance is necessary.

Sore Throats, Diphtheria, Quinsey, Mumps & all other Derangements of the Throat.

On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointment should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as salt is forced into meat; this course will at once remove inflammation and ulceration. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions.

Scrofula or King's Evil and Swelling of the Glands.

This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of purifying the blood and strengthening the system renders them more suitable than any other remedy for all complaints of a scrofulous nature. As the blood is impure the liver, stomach and bowels, being much deranged, require purifying medicine to bring about a cure.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:—

Bad Legs.	Chapped Hands.	Scalds.
Bad Breasts.	Contracted and Stiff Joints.	Sore Nipples.
Burns.	Elephantiasis.	Sore-throats.
Bunions.	Fistulas.	Skin-diseases.
Bite of Mosquitoes and Sand-Flies.	Gout.	Scurvy.
Coco-bay.	Glandular Swellings.	Sore-heads.
Chicago-foot.	Lings.	Tumors.
Corns (soft).	Lumbago.	Ulcers.
Cancers.	Piles.	Wounds.
Chilblains.	Rheumatism.	Yaws.

Sold at the establishment of Professor Holloway 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar) London; and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilised world, at the following prices:—1s., 1½d., 2s., 9d., 4s., 6d., 11s., 22s., and 33s. each Pot.

"* There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot. au15

Poetry.

The Going of my Bride.

By the brink of the River our parting was fond,
But the words were spoke hurried and low,
For a band of bright angels was waiting beyond,
And my bride of a day was to go.

Was to go from the shore with its headlands of years
On a water whose depths were untold,
And the boat was to float on this River of Tears
Till it came to an Ocean of Gold.

Our parting was brief as the fall of a tear—
The minutes like winged spirits flew;
Till my bride whispered low that a shadow drew near,
And the beck of the boatman she knew.

Then I spoke in one kiss all the passion of years,
For I felt the parting was nigh;
Yet saw not its end—I was blinded by tears,
And the light had gone out from the sky.

But I caught the faint gleam of an outdrifting sail,
And the dip of a silver-tipped oar;
And I knew by the low rustling sign of the gale
That a spirit had gone from the shore.

All alone with my grief I now sit on the sand
Where so often she sat by my side,
And I long for the shallop to come to the strand,
That again I may sit by my bride.

THE NEW WESTMINSTER ELECTION.

[From the "EVENING EXPRESS"]

Two of the districts in British Columbia have already responded to the call of his Excellency, Sir James Douglas, and have returned men to represent them in the new Legislative Council of the Colony. In performing this high duty the people of New Westminster have demonstrated their fitness for self government, and given a practical contradiction to the oft repeated calumny that they were republicans or democrats of the lowest type. With no instructions given them as to the mode of election, whether it should be by universal suffrage or otherwise, the citizens met together and devised a franchise to which the strongest Tory in England could offer no objection, and by that did they elect the man of their choice. We venture to say that there is not a Colony under the British Crown that would have given a more noble example of their attachment to British principles and British freedom, than that exhibited by the denizens of the capital of British Columbia. Situated, as that Colony is, with a fluctuating and migratory population, many of whom have resided in the United States, and as it was supposed, had been leavened
there with the democratic tendencies of that country, it is surprising, but it is deeply gratifying, to see them come forward and prove that the principles they had imbibed in their youth have taken permanent hold of their minds, and brought forth the pure fruits of good early training. When we cast our thoughts to other Colonies, and find that with constitutions granted them on the basis of a rational freedom, and see how much the levelling tendencies of what we hope is a bye-gone age has done in reducing their whole system to a practical copy of American institutions, it makes us feel still more proud of our fellow-subjects in British Columbia for their assertion of principles which ought to be dear to every true Briton. In speaking thus, we do not mean to say that personally we had any real fear of the hearts of the people of our sister Colony not being sound, but we confess that we could not help feeling somewhat timid lest the teachings of a few who grossly misrepresent the enlightened public opinion of the country might have had some effect on the unwary and led them astray for the time, and by this means proved to the Duke of Newcastle that a Constitution such as that conferred on Vancouver Island and other Colonies was not suited to British Columbia. By the prudent, moderate, and conservative course which the people of New Westminster have pursued and which we trust, will be followed by other districts, they have covered themselves with honor, and illustrated
the attachment which true Britons feel towards their native land and the institutions that have made it the envy of the world. As to the merits of the gentleman who has been returned, we are not prepared to speak; it is sufficient for us that he has been elected by a majority on a franchise of the right kind, and so far as we can learn his election has been the result of a fair contest
—a hard but honorable fight—and the majority quite sufficient to prove his popularity. To the address which he issued to the constituency, we can take very little exception, and we would earnestly recommend it to the attention of the members of our House of Assembly at the present moment. When Mr. Ridge, in his opening speech on the union question, stated that before many years New Westminster, by a sliding scale process, would become a free port, the statement was questioned by some honorable members; but we would ask them to consider what does Mr. Homer mean by being an advocate for "remodelling the tariff." It is certainly not for raising it, if we take the sentence in connection with one which follows it: "He would also advocate an export duty on gold." Now, with an export duty on gold, an import duty would not be required, and the tariff would soon fade away altogether. Although Mr. Homer expresses himself as adverse to a union with this Colony, we do not believe that, on principles beneficial to both—any other, as an able member here clearly demonstrated, would not be lasting—either be or any of his fellow-colonists would offer objection.

THE SUFFERER'S BEST FRIEND.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

All Disorders affecting the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

These Pills can be confidently recommended as the most simple and certain remedy for indigestion, flatulency, acidity, heartburn, colic, constipation, and all the many maladies resulting from disordered stomach or bowels. In all diseases it is of primary importance to set the stomach right. These Pills are purifiers, altera-tives, and strengtheners of the stomach. They may be taken under any circumstances. Though powerfully tonic, and satisfactorily aperient, they are mild in their operation, and beneficial to the whole system.

Weakness and Debility, Nervous Irritability.

The wholesome effect exercised by these admirable Pills over the blood and fluids generally is like a charm
in dispelling low spirits, and restoring cheerfulness.
Their general aperient qualities well fit them for a domestic medicine, particularly for females of all ages and periods of life. They never betray any disagreeable irritating qualities; they quickly eject all impurities from the system, and regulate every function of the body, giving wonderful tone and energy to weak and debilitated persons, while they brace and strengthen the nervous system in a most extraordinary manner.

To Regain Health, Strength and Vigour.

Whenever persons find themselves in that state termed a "little out of health," and there are so many causes
at work to shorten life, it is necessary that Holloway's Pills, the finest purifier of the blood ever known, should be at once taken, as they not only rid both solids and fluids of all morbid matters, but regulate all disordered actions, and strengthen the frame in a most extraordinary manner.

Old Coughs, Colds and Asthmatical Affections.

These Pills, assisted in their action by rubbing Holloway's Ointment very effectively twice a day upon the throat and chest, and keeping those parts covered with the preparation, will be found the most effectual remedy for asthma, coughs, colds, bronchitis, and influenza.
These remedies tranquilize the hurried breathing,
soothe the irritated air-tubes, and assist in dislodging the phlegm which stops up the air-passages. This treatment has proved wonderfully efficient in not only curing old settled colds, but asthma of many years standing, and even when patients who were in so bad a state as not able to lie down on their beds lest they be choked with phlegm.

Derangement and Distention of the Bowels, Flatulency, Diarrhoea
and Dysentery.

Any symptoms of the above complaints should be immediately met by appropriate doses of these Pills, according to the printed directions; delay may be followed by disastrous consequences. These Pills are a certain remedy for all the ailments of the alimentary canal, they secure the thorough digestion of the food, and act most kindly on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys. As a household medicine they are unrivalled, and should always be at hand.

Very Important, of Costiveness
Beware.

Rarely but little notice is taken of costiveness, yet,
at certain periods, it is a sure sign that danger is near.
All who are seized with apoplexy and paralysis, have previously suffered from costiveness. In the former case the blood flies to the head, a small vein is ruptured on the brain, and we know the rest. Let wives counsel their husbands, and husbands their wives, never to go to bed a second night, if the bowels have not been properly moved during the day, particularly if they feel heavy and drowsy. A few gentle doses of these fine Pills will regulate the circulation of the blood, and all dangerous symptoms.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world
for the following diseases—

Ague	Female Irreg- ularities	Retention of Urine
Asthma	Fever of all kinds	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Bilious Complaints	Fits	Sore Throats
Blotches on the skin	Gout	Stone and Gravel
Bowel Complaints	Head-ache	Secondary Symp- toms
Colic	Indigestion	Tic Douloureux
Constipation of the Bowels	Inflammation	Tumours
Consumption	Jaunderice	Ulcers
Debility	Liver Com- plaints	Veneral Affections
Dyspepsia	Lumbago	Worms of all kinds
Dysentery	Piles	Weakness, from whatever cause, &c., &c.
Erysipelas	Rheumatism
